COMMENTS

No Visa needed

You will get a visa stamped into your passport upon arrival in the country.

Visa needed

You have to apply for a visa at the Peruvian embassy or consulate before travelling to Peru.

(!)

Please note that it is your nationality and not the residence permit for another country that is the deciding factor if you need a visa or not!

(!)

Since July 2008 it is NOT possible to extend your tourist visa once you have entered Peru!!! When arriving at the airport or border make sure you get a visa for the time you intent to stay. After Peruvian law the maximum time for a tourist to stay in the country is 183 days per year.
